The Usual Number of Crimes Reported

Tillman Is Indicted for Murder—Mud Larks at Memphis Derby.

HOWARD CASE WAS PASSED

KILLING IN PULASKI

Barren Fork, April 7—While a crowd of men were sitting in a tippling house kept by William Siddings, four miles from here, there was a free for all fight. John King was killed instantly, shot through heart. John Gore was mortally wounded, and only lived 24 hours. A man named Hyden did the shooting and surrendered.

GROOMED FOR CONGRESS.

Louisville, April 7—W. C. Owens, formerly a Democratic congressman from the Ashland district, is being groomed for the Republican nomination for congress in this district. Owens was urged to make the race for criminal judge or attorney general, but declined preferring to be a candidate for congress.

A MOTHER'S CRIME.

Birmingham, Ala., April 7—Mrs. Susie McMillan gave her eight month's old baby a large dose of carbolic acid and committed suicide by shooting herself twice in the breast. She was found on the floor of her room by her husband when he came home for supper. No motive is known.

STOCKMAN MURDERED.

Denver, Col., April 7—Joseph McEhan, a wealthy stockman, was murdered from ambush near Akron, Colo.

JOURNALIST DEAD.

New York, April 7—William P. Beldan, a leading journalist and politician, died suddenly at Albany, N. Y.

A FAMILY QUARREL.

Pittsburg, April 7—Ramey Webster was shot to death and Town Marshal J. M. Bishop was fatally stabbed, during a family quarrel at Girard, Ga.

PROMINENT MAN ILL.

Mayfield, Ky., April 7—B. S. Wright, a prominent business man and perhaps the wealthiest man in the county, is ill at his home of catarrhal pneumonia and is not expected to live.

TILLMAN INDICTED

FOR MURDER.

Columbia, S.C., April 7—The grand jury has returned a true bill charging wilful murder against former Lieutenant Governor Tillman.

STEAMBOAT ENGINEER KILLED.

Bowling Green, April 7—Millard Conway, engineer of the steamer Mystic, was killed at Glenmore, this county, by being caught in the machinery and ground to death.

HOWARD CASE PASSED.

Frankfort, April 7—The Howard case was called and passed until Wednesday. He will not ask a change of venue.

MUDDY TRACK.

Memphis, Tenn., April 7—The derby will be decided over a course deep in mud this afternoon. At midnight a steady downpour of rain set in, and at 10 o'clock this morning there has been no cessation. Rightful, belonging to Jno Schorr, is a red hot favorite.

KILLING ON WHITE RIVER.

West Liberty, Ky., April 7—On White river Sam Trace killed Logan Elam, and Sidney Elam, his son, killed Trace. They were neighbors and closely related. The cause is not known.

CANDIDATES PAYING UP.

Frankfort, April 7—The following candidates have paid up: Beckham, Hendrick, Thorne, Renick, Hays, Hager, Bosworth, Griffith, Richardson, McChesney, Watkins, Sagg, Hedger, Vreeland, Greene and Chinn.

PADUCAH GETS PATENT.

Washington, April 7—Charles E. Evans, of Paducah, was today granted a patent for a log loader.

THE NEW PETIT JURY

Circuit Court Got Down to Business Today.

The First Case Taken Up Today That Against Mr. E. Y. Ogilvie.

OTHER COURTS TODAY

The second day of circuit court began this morning, and the petit jury was empaneled as follows: J. H. Perkins, A. W. Greif, E. F. Fattrell, W. L. Pugh, George Roberts, S. W. Johnson, J. G. McKinney, George Johnson, Charles Harting, R. P. Allen, W. S. Moore, H. C. D. Howard, George Umbaugh, Wm. Leonard, J. A. Houser, B. J. Hovecamp, G. H. Hunt, John Roof, W. T. Smith, J. G. Shewan, Charles M. Ross, Thomas Gaines, J. B. Wyatt, John Rothwell.

The first case on the docket was that against E. Y. Ogilvie, of the Maxon Mills neighborhood, who is charged with having suffered a nuisance to go on about his place of business by permitting negroes to loaf about his store. These negroes were employed on the railroad work in that neighborhood and several times had fights and shooting scrapes, placing the residents of that section in constant terror, it is claimed.

On motion of James Campbell, attorney, Mr. J. H. Buchanan, of Waverly, Tenn., was admitted to the local bar and sworn in to regular practice this morning.

An appeal was filed in the case of Rudolph Wurlitzer against F. N. Gardner. The case was first tried in quarterly court and a judgment rendered for the plaintiff, the judgment amounting to $147.70.

FISCAL COURT.

The April term of fiscal court, the most important of the year, convened at the court house this morning and will doubtless, as customary, be in session three days, if not longer. There is much business to transact, and a county road supervisor and county treasurer are to be elected. All the magistrates were present.

After organizing, the court this morning adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow in order to allow the committees to complete their work. The finance and other committees are this afternoon busy auditing accounts and preparing reports.

The election of a county road supervisor is one of the most important matters to be disposed of at the meeting. The position pays $900 a year, and there are six men mentioned as probable candidates.

Mr. E. B. Johnson, the present supervisor, is one of them. Others mentioned are: Charles Ross, Charles Lamond, M. Trice, Will Derrington and E. Jones. It is thought that Mr. Johnson will be re-elected, as it does not appear to be deemed advisable for the county to make a change as soon as one man becomes familiar with the road work and put in a man who will have to learn it all by experience.

The salary may be changed before the new supervisor is elected, but this will probably not be decided until later.

The treasurer settled as follows: On account of the county levy and special fund from December 19, 1902, to March 31, 1903, inclusive, vouchers and cancelled coupons amounting to a total of $22,522.74, leaving a balance of $4,379.01 due the county.

On account of the pauper fund from the same date, vouchers filed amounting to $17,618.11, leaving a balance due the county treasury of $250.

On motion it was ordered that all bills or claims against the county shall be filed with the county clerk before the first day of each term or the bills shall lie over until the next term.

POLICE COURT.

George Parker was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly and Hettie Jones $5 and costs for a similar offense.

A bench of the peace case against Mat Hall was dismissed.

DR. BRIGGS INJURED

Had a Wrist Broken in a Street Car Accident.

Will Be Unable to Appear at His Trial the Eighth, He Writes.

A CONTINUANCE AGREED ON

Rev. G. W. Briggs, former pastor of the Broadway M. E. church here, came near being killed in a street car accident a few days ago at Louisville, and as a result will be unable to be here to appear when the case against him in circuit court here for maliciously cutting T. J. Garr comes up before Judge Husbands April 8.

Captain Joe Fowler, one of his bondsmen, this morning received a letter from him, in which he stated that in an accident his left wrist was broken, one finger on his left hand was broken, and he was badly bruised. He did not give any details of the accident, but it was doubtless a collision. Dr. Briggs, it will be remembered, was indicted at the last term of circuit court here and Captain Fowler and Mr. G. C. Crumbaugh went on his bond for $300. Dr. Briggs has been out of the city ever since, and has decided to devote his time exclusively to lecturing hereafter, instead of accepting a pastorate in the Baltimore conference, as it was announced he would do about April 1. His family joined him in Louisville yesterday.

It is understood that the attorneys have agreed to continue the case against Dr. Briggs, owing to his inability to appear. It is also said that the prosecuting witness, Mr. Garr, who was formerly proprietor of The Inn, is not in the city and has not been here in some time. His bondsmen will remain on his bond.

STEAM HEATING

SUPERINTENDENT SAYS THERE WAS NO INTENTION OF CROSSING AT FOURTH.

The superintendent of the steam heating plant stated today in regard to the squabble in the council last night relative to the company crossing at Broadway at Fourth, that there was no intention of crossing there. The city in the original ordinance designated Fourth street as one of the intersections of the line, but the company preferred Fifth and was allowed to cross there instead on condition that it did not cross Broadway at Fourth. When the ordinance was brought up last night giving the company permission over Fifth street, it was held up. The superintendent stated, however, that if the city is going to pave Fourth street it would be advisable to have the steam pipes laid there now, but that it wouldn't be done unless the city requires it.

A NEW TIE COMPANY

Capt. Frank Beatty is One of the Organizers.

He Will Divide His Time Between Paducah and Nashville Hereafter.

MISS HUSBANDS IS PROMOTED

Captain Frank Beatty, manager of the Pillsbury-Watkins Tie company, and Miss Julia Husbands, who has been manager of the office here, will leave Thursday for Nashville to take charge of the office of the Cumberland Tie and Lumber company, a newly organized corporation which will operate on the upper Cumberland river and the Tennessee Central railroad.

At a meeting of the corporation the following officers were elected: J. S. Neal, of Nashville, president; John Schofner of Nashville, secretary and treasurer; Captain Frank Beatty of Paducah, general manager, and Miss Julia Husbands, of Paducah, manager of the main office at Nashville.

Captain Beatty will still retain his managership of the Pillsbury-Watkins company and will divide his time with the two companies, remaining here half the month and at Nashville the other half. The capital stock of the concern is fixed at $30,000 and begins operation immediately.

STOLEN BICYCLE

OFFICERS FIND ONE IN POSSESSION OF NEGROES.

A. J. Hogan of South Second street yesterday had his bicycle stolen, and the loss was reported to the police. This morning Officers Hurley and Heslan saw a negro riding it. He said he borrowed it from another negro who was then at home asleep, and the officers went after the latter, too. He claimed he was in front of the Greek restaurant yesterday when a negro he had never seen before or since told him he could ride it, and to take good care of it. He rode it off and had been "taking good care of it" ever since. The negroes gave the names of Buck Woodford and Ed Stinson. They will probably be sent to the penitentiary for telling such a gauzy story, if nothing else.

SUMMONS SERVED

PADUCAH LIQUOR CO. MUST APPEAR AT MAYFIELD.

Marshal Crow today received from Mayfield two summons from the police court there against the Paducah Distilling Co. on a charge of retailing liquor there without a license. The summons will be answered by some member of the firm here in the near future. Mr. Morris Friedman is at the head of the company.

REPUBLICAN GAINS

They Had Material Increases in Ohio Yesterday.

Regain Control of Cincinnati—The Democrats Normal Vote.

ELECTIONS IN OTHER PLACES

Cincinnati, April 7—The Republicans had material gains in the municipal elections in Ohio yesterday.

At Columbus Mayor Kinkle, Democrat, is succeeded by Jeffreys, Republican. The mayors of all the leading cities except Columbus were re-elected.

The Republicans retained control of Cincinnati, and the Democrats of Cleveland, and Samuel M. Jones was elected as an independent for the fourth time as mayor of Toledo.

The Democrats re-elected their tickets at Dayton, Sandusky, Chillicothe, Hamilton and other cities normally Democratic, and the Republicans at Steubenville, Youngtown, Warren, Ironton, Portsmouth and other towns that they have heretofore controlled. The winning tickets were of either of the dominant parties. The fusion tickets as a rule were defeated in a dozen or more cities where they were in the field.

Cincinnati, O., April 7—Complete returns from the 228 precincts in Cincinnati give Fleischmann, Republican, 42,907; Ingalls, Fusionist, 26,287; Swing, Socialist, 3,774; Martin, Prohibitionist, 845; total, 73,813. Fleischmann's plurality is 16,620; majority, 12,001. The entire Republican city ticket, including all the boards, was selected by about the same vote as that of Fleischmann.

CHICAGO ELECTION TODAY.

Chicago, April 7—Estimates by Republican and Democratic campaign managers on the result of today's city election are 97,000 votes apart.

Chairman Carey of the Democratic city committee, declares that Mayor Carter H. Harrison is certain of reelection by 50,000, and Chairman Revell of the Republican committee asserts that Graeme Stewart, the party candidate, will have a plurality of 47,000. Daniel J. Cralice, the independent Labor candidate, also expressed himself certain of election by about 30,000 plurality.

AT CLEVELAND.

Cleveland, O., April 7—Mayor Johnson claims the election of the entire Democratic ticket by from 7,000 to 10,000 and threequarters of the city council.

AT DETROIT.

Detroit, Mich., April 7—The Republicans of Michigan today elected their state ticket by a majority estimated at midnight at between 35,000 and 40,000.

AT COLUMBUS.

Columbus, April 7—Robert H. Jeffreys, Republican, is elected mayor over John N. Hinkle, Democrat, the present incumbent, by about 1,800.

MILITARY ELECTION

THE WHEELER GUARDS SOON TO CHOOSE OFFICERS.

The regular election for officers in the Wheeler Guards will be held on April 16 and Captain James Caldwell is looking forward to quite an interesting election. There are two lieutenants to be elected and all vacancies caused by the election of a minor officer will also be filled at this election.

SEEMS A FIZZLE.

NOTHING HAS YET SHOWED UP IN MAYFIELD.

The Mayfield street fair seems a fizzle, and as yet no shows have showed up.

Today at noon two young men of Paducah returned from Mayfield, where they had gone expecting to enjoy the fair, but were surprised to see nothing. It is said that the carnival attractions are tied up at Obion, Tenn.

FURTHER DETAILS

$100,000 Reported Paid for the Blow Factory.

Mr. Frank Fulton Will Probably Manage the Big Concern.

The Hiram Blow stove factory, located near the I. O. passenger depot, has been sold to the Paducah Coopersage Co., the transfer being effective May 1.

Mr. V. J. Blow made a trip to Chicago last week and has just returned, and during his visit completed the plans for the sale. The terms are private, but it is reported $100,000 was paid for the plant. Mr. Frank Fulton, who was manager for this plant several years ago, will return to Paducah and manage the plant of the Paducah Coopersage Co. The coopersage company recently absorbed the Kilgore factory and is now one of the biggest concerns in the country. Mr. Fulton will be manager of the entire three plants, it is understood.

Mr. Blow is an officer in the coopersage company and also a third owner and will remain here, it is thought, and take some part in the management of the affairs of the company.

AFTER BECK

Col. Hendrick May Speak at Owensboro Monday.

If the Governor Speaks There Col. Hendrick Will Also.

Col. John K. Hendrick this afternoon announced that in case Gov. Beckham speaks at Owensboro Monday, which it is today understood he will, Col. Hendrick will call off his appointment at Lexington for Monday and instead speak at Owensboro also.

The other two candidates have been patiently awaiting an announcement of Gov. Beckham's list of speaking, and have wanted to get at him for some time. In case the governor visits Owensboro Monday he will likely find Col. Hendrick on hand, and a lively time is promised.

Roy Katterjohn of Notre Dame is here visiting his parents.

DAILY MARKET LETTER.

Wall Street, New York, April 7—The general trend of the market for the first two hours was upward with occasional setbacks from the high points, but after that heavy selling caused prices to break sharply, closing at nearly the lowest prices of the day, but generally speaking the market shows a great deal of strength and this foreshadows a favorable outcome. Call money is easier with the outlook decidedly better. As the April disbursements are now finding their way back to the banks money is decidedly easier in London, Paris and Berlin. A great deal is made in the press about the "undigested securities" of which many are overhanging the market. Good stocks are being sold to take care of them. Nimbleness is a requisite at present as values may fluctuate violently in the settlement of pending questions. The banks are loaned up to about their full capacity and it is not plain where the relief to come from. A sustained bull market, therefore, does not seem likely. Steel directors had their meeting day and may possibly issue an announcement. J. P. Morgan is reported for Europe Wednesday to J. J. Hill.

A TRAVELING MAN'S ESTIMATE OF US

A gentleman who recently came to Paducah, and has been in every town of size in the state, and many in the United States, writes the following to The Sun with a hope that the people here will learn to see our city as others see it:

To The Sun:

May I have a little space to express my views of your city? I do not know your politics, nor your attitude toward the city officials, whether with them or against them; nor do I intend to criticize them, but I do wish to say, as an observing outsider, "there is something rotten in Denmark."

Paducah is practically the keystone to the Ohio river; a city of 25,000 inhabitants, I am told; yet put a stranger in here for the first time and he is impressed at once with the lack of earnest enterprise and the pride one should have for a city of this size.

Again, if the writer mistakes not, the postal regulations require that the names of streets be posted on the corners; that the houses be numbered. It is not done here, and the numbering of residences is and is not done. Some are, and some are not. A very few dollars would remedy this. But alas, we are told that someone has a clutch on these few dollars. They would rather see Paducah fifty years behind than a progressive river city and the pride of "good old Kentucky."

And again, there is permitted, and an ordinance violated daily, that would not be tolerated, elsewhere, and that is the piling up of shoe boxes, dry goods boxes and the like on the sidewalks in front of the stores. Saturday evening we were walking along Broadway, and actually had to "take the gutter" in front of one of the stores. Not less than 100 boxes, big and little, were here, leaving a space of about four to five feet for a Saturday night crowd to pass through. Shame on the "city dais!" Why is not this ordinance enforced? Who owns these walks, the city or the merchant? What are they, public thoroughfares, or store-rooms?

It won't bankrupt you to make a change so noticeable to the traveling public that Paducah, instead of being one of the cleanest and prettiest cities in your state, is far behind many of her sister cities of one-half and less in population.

AN OBSERVER.

DOCTORS TO GATHER

DR. GRIFFITH WILL ENTERTAIN THE MEDICAL SOCIETY TOMORROW.

The County Medical society will meet tomorrow night with Dr. B. B. Griffith, who will deliver a lecture on some subject to be selected today.

Of late the physicians have not been reading papers, as has been the usual custom, but have been lecturing, the same as is done in the colleges. Nothing of importance is on the program for tomorrow, but a large attendance is expected.

JOHN BROWN'S

COTTAGE DESTROYED.

Tabor, Ia., April 7.—The small cottage in which old John Brown, the abolitionist, lived for several years in the 50's, and which was used as headquarters of his underground railroad for the helping of runaway slaves, burned.

In connection with his headquarters in Tabor Brown organized a military school in which sympathizers with Brown were taught the manual of arms, which knowledge was to be used in an uprising which never occurred. From this building Brown directed his companions in running away slaves, who were taken through various resting places, traveling at night only, to the Canadian border and freed. The building was one of the show places of the town, although small and tumbled down.

DANGEROUS PREDICAMENT

RUNAWAY HORSES LEAVE EXPRESS WAGON ON EDGE OF EMBANKMENT.

Last night at 7 o'clock a team belonging to the American express company broke loose from its hitching post at the depot and ran away. The animals dragged the big wagon over Caldwell street without an accident until the first bridge was reached. Here the wagon veered off and left the bridge on the left side and came near turning over and going over the embankment into the hollow below. The horses stopped here and were caught by the driver, who unhitched them and left the wagon where it stalled. It was pulled out this morning and is only slightly damaged. The harness was damaged, but both horses escaped injury.

COMMITTEE FAVORS.

IT WILL RECOMMEND PAYMENT OF SUPERVISORS' BILL.

The matter of paying the city tax supervisors for the full time they worked on the city tax books, was not brought up at the council meeting last night as the council has allowed the full amount and the board of aldermen refused it. The board of aldermen referred the matter to a committee which it is understood will report Thursday night in favor of paying the full amount.

BLIND PIANO TUNER.

Mayfield, April 7.—Roy, the blind son of Judge J. T. Webb, left this morning for Buffalo, Ky., from which point he will start to work. He has accepted a position tuning pianos and is quite an adept, although sightless.

WITH THE APRIL MAGAZINES.

Of high importance among the magazine articles of the month is "The Restoration of the White House," written for the April Century by Charles Moore, clerk of the senate committee on the District of Columbia, whose accounts of "The Improvement of Washington City" appeared in The Century for February and March last year. In illustrating the article The Century has employed its best illustrative resources. The exterior drawings by Jules Guerin and the interior by Alfred Brennan, bring out the intention of the architects to a remarkable degree. The frontispiece of the number is a picture by Jules Guerin of the new East Entrance on the occasion of an evening reception. Mr. Brennan has made, among other pictures, double drawings of the new state dining room and of the new blue room. Miss Cecilia Beaux's portrait of Mrs. Roosevelt (with her daughter Ethel) is published for the first time. Ray Stannard Baker follows up his general view of the Great Northwest in the March Century with detailed description in the April number of "Butte City, greatest of copper camps." "The Evolution of American Census Taking" is discussed in the April Century by no less an authority than the director of the census himself, the Honorable W. R. Merriam. In the same issue Hermann Klein, for thirty years a prominent musical critic in London, gives personal recollections of Verdi, Wagner, Gounod, Liszt, and Tchaikowsky. There is also a review of "The Great Business Combinations of Today" series, J. D. Kelley, commander United States Navy, telling the story of "The So-called Steamship Trust." "A Picturesque Politician of Jefferson's Time," by J. Fairfax McLaughlin, recounts incidents in the life of Colonel Matthew Lyon. Fiction in the April Century is, as usual, varied to suit all tastes.

The April Cosmopolitan is a carefully balanced magazine. It appeals to the individual tastes of the many, and the many tastes of the individual. There are 17 stories and articles—101 pictures. Chief place is given to a striking article on "The Americanization of the Canadian Northwest," written by William K. Stewart. A personal sketch of Bjornson, the prophet-poet of Norway, is a most entertainingly written, and is illustrated with a number of beautiful photographs of the poet's home. "To Love or To Be Loved," is a philosophical essay, by Lavinia Hart, in the course of which she shows that to love means increase of physical beauty—an end which may also be gained by physical exercise, as is shown in the same number by Bernarr MacFadde, in an article entitled "Health Made and Preserved by Daily Exercise." Dr. George F. Shears writes on "Medicine" as part of the series, "Making a Choice of a Profession." "Famous Cures and Humbugs of Europe," is by the late Julian Ralph. "Romances of the World's Great Mines" (Calumet and Hecla), by S. E. Moffett. There are also two sketches—one a great financier, Jacob H. Schiff, and the other on the sugar king, H. O. Havemeyer. Field Marshal Viscount Wolseley, K. P.; H. G. Wells, Henry Seton Merriman, Seumas MacManus, and several other well known writers contribute to this number of The Cosmopolitan, which is particularly remarkable for the variety of its fiction.

The April McClure's is above all distinguished for the freshness, sparkle, and humor of its contents. It is also a particularly strong short story number. The leading article, "Masters of Their Craft," by Adrian Kirk, will do any one good to read. John La Farge also writes of a master craftsman, "Hogarth." "I am Married" is the title of Clara Morris's autobiographical paper. The stories include Stewart Edward White's "The Riverman," another "Blazed Trail Story," Henry Wallace Phillip's "Oscar Chance, per Charley," one of the author's imitable pictures on ranch life; "Miss Janumit Latit," by Empeigh Merwyn, the story of an imaginative infant and an imaginary stepmother; "The Scheme of Sutcliffe, Swindler," a capital business story by William Hamilton Osborn; and "The Quick Decision Board," by Grace Richmond. "Who Was Her Keeper," by Mary A. Bacon, gives the only touch of sadness to the number. Mr. Pier's excellent serial, "The Triumph," continues, and Miss Tarbell writes one of the most eventful chapters of Standard Oil History, which she calls "The Defeat of the Pennsylvania." There is some excellent verse.

Lippincott's Magazine has won a reputation for its monthly novels. That in the April number, "The Trifler," is written by Archibald Eyre, an English author of rising fame. The tale bearing on the great Coal Strike by Edith Robinson called "An Involuntary Benefactor; a lovely nature story by Dr. Charles O. Abbott, "A Fresh' on the Ma'sh;" Florence Kingston Hoffman's amusing tale of "A Lucky Strategem;" "Hickey of Old Thirteen," by John Austin Schetty; a laughable story by Elliott Flower called "A Flance in Triplicate" compose the shorter fiction. Much information timed exactly to the planting season is to be found in a paper by Eben E. Rexford on "Next Summer's Garden." "Lafayette's Last Visit to America," by Theodore Stanton, contains matter that is new and interesting in heretofore unpublished letters from George Washington Lafayette, son of the Marquis.

The April 10 Story Book is particularly unique. The publishers have made a departure in their cover design and have secured something in the classic line by an artist of note. The color effect is particularly striking. The list of authors this month is of the usual high class. General Charles King leads with a story under the taking title of "When She Was Twenty-two." "A Practical Lover's Coup" is really a remarkable clever story by Stanley Waterloo. Hayden Caruth's story, "My Eccentric Friend" is one of the best things of the month. Another story, "A Passion in Mid-ocean" by Prof. Sherwin Cody deserves special mention. The masterpiece this month is that wonderful tale of horror, Edgar Allen Poe's "Black Cat." There are other stories of merit by W. Calver Moore, prize story by Lawrence Henry, Henry S. Gibson and Paul Perell.

Conkey's Home Journal gives its readers another pleasing surprise by another increase in the number of pages, eight more being added in the April issue. The April number opens with five good short stories, which are followed by "Window and Veranda boxes," by Eben E. Rexford; "How to Care for Canaries," by Marguerite

B. Arnold; "How a Woman May Become a Leader," by Laura A. Smith; "Entertaining in a Simple Way," by Katherine Prindville; "Original Designs for Waists," by Genevieve Long; "Practical Lessons in Lace and Embroidery Making," by Grace Bishop; "Lessons in Home Dressmaking," by May Manton; "Dawn of Love Waltz," for piano, by A. A. Ford; "Piano Playing," by Dr. M. L. Quinn; "Vocal Training," by Prof. Henry Dickson.

Justus Miles Foreman's story, "Kersalec," with which the April Smart Set opens, is a novelette both strong and distinctive. In it a quaint old Breton legend is made the theme, around which is woven a beautiful love tale, full of exquisite romance. The short stories of the April number surpass even the high standard of fiction which this magazine has established for itself. All are excellent, and it is difficult to select. There is, too, an admirable essay by Douglass Story, entitled, "God's Own Country," in which a beautiful idea is wrought out with that high literary merit which distinguishes Mr. Story's work. The poems are all of more than ordinary worth. The humor of the number, both prose and verse, is excellent and varied.

MONDAY NIGHTERS.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT AN ENJOYABLE MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Last night the Monday Nighters, the new social club formed in the Y. M. C. A., held the second meeting. Mr. Fitch, of St. Louis, entertained the twenty-five members present with sleight of hand tricks, and music and games were also features of the meeting. After the social part of the entertainment, refreshments were served. The following committee was appointed to prepare a program for the next meeting, to be held two weeks from yesterday: Messrs. Hanna, Matthis, Hecox, Spillane and Fewell. The election of officers was held last night and Prof. P. N. Peck was elected president and Anderson Woods secretary.

ASSAULTED THE OFFICER.

Fulton, Ky., April 7.—Sheriff Lloyd Dodd, of Weakly county, Tenn., was knocked senseless by a negro prisoner and badly cut. He may die.

A Story Worth Telling

We never tire of telling the story of Uneeda Biscuit. We do not believe that lovers of good, wholesome food ever tire reading it.

Uneeda Biscuit are the result of two ideas. That soda crackers could be made better than they had ever been made before. That it was possible to convey them to the home fresh, crisp and clean.

The importance of the soda cracker as an article of daily consumption, made this worthy of extraordinary effort. True, many people laughed at the idea of so much thought—time—labor—capital, being devoted to a soda cracker. But the greatest industries of the greatest country in the world have been developed from smaller things than a soda cracker, and so it seemed worth while to make the best soda cracker that could be made and to place it on the table as good as it had been made.

To do the first required the selection of the best materials, of the best equipment, the highest skill. To do the second upset all traditions. The oldest bakers said there was no way to keep a soda cracker good.

That no one expected it any way. That people were satisfied to eat them stale, as they had been in the habit of doing. And so it fell to the lot of younger minds to do this unheard of thing—to keep a soda cracker good until eaten.

The result was the creation of the In-er-seal Package with red and white seal. An invention that kept out the air, moisture, dust germs, that first retained the natural flavor of the biscuit, keeping it crisp and fresh until it reached the table, and so Uneeda Biscuit became a reality. The little thing that seemed hardly worth while became a great thing that seemed hardly possible.

To-day over 300,000,000 packages have been consumed by the thoughtful people of this country and the demand is ever increasing.

That is the story of Uneeda Biscuit. Some day we will tell it over again for the benefit of those who are still "satisfied" with the stale and broken crackers that come in a paper bag, when they can get Uneeda Biscuit whole, fresh, and clean.

SPEAKING OF GALL

Nerve seems characteristic of the present city administration. Some one has had the gall to suggest in the council that the city of Paducah, or to be more exact the taxpayers of Paducah, pay the $300 attorney fee incurred by Marshal Crow in his recent injunction suit. It is very unfortunate that Marshal Crow should have had to pay out his own money to test a question in the courts for the benefit of others who "wanted to know," but if those who feel a guilty conscience over the transaction think the marshal's bill should be paid by some one else, they should pay it themselves. The effort to have this bill footed by the taxpayers is about as monumental a piece of gall as the effort made by the same crowd not long ago to have Judge Pryor's opinion paid for by the city.

Another piece of gall is that of the official who was recently declared by the highest court in the state to be entitled to discharge the duties and collect the compensation of prosecuting attorney under the third class charter, trying to pose as "city attorney" and discharge the duties of "city attorney." The only city attorney Paducah has is the one elected under the third class charter for two years, who is still holding the office and drawing the salary, and is erroneously called the "city solicitor." The gentleman who is now trying to pose as "city attorney" and to exercise the privileges of a city attorney elected under the second class charter, is only "prosecuting attorney," elected under the third class charter, paid under the third class charter, and entitled to discharge only the duties imposed on him by the third class charter.

A story that rivals Colonel Pete Burnett's famous narrative of a vinegar spring near Reelfoot Lake, which went the rounds a few years ago, has just been published in a European paper, and states that a cowboy has found in the Yellowstone Park, United States, immense deposits of "corned beef" which are capable of sustaining the whole world for quite a while. In explanation it says: "Evidently enormous droves of cattle have, during the triocene period, been caught by a revolution of the earth and buried by the thrown down masses. The extensive saline deposits in the district preserved and seasoned the meat, the cold of the ice period kept it for milleniums, and under the influence of the immense pressure of the masses of earth and stones it has been transformed into a kind of salt meat, which, as to taste and nutritiousness, is not inferior to corned beef." Joe Mulhatten evidently has a successor.

It is hoped that fiscal court will see that McCracken county does her share towards making the Kentucky exhibit a success. At the present meeting the county will be asked to make a donation to the association, and as one of the best counties in the state, and containing the second city of the state in commercial importance, the court should see to it that the right thing is done. Other counties have donated from $2,000 down, and if all respond liberally no county will have occasion to feel ashamed of Kentucky's exhibit at the St. Louis exposition.

One of the peculiar inconsistencies of the council is how it can pass an ordinance taking steps to condemn 15 or 20 thousand dollars worth of property for the city when there is not a cent in the treasury with which to pay for it, and none appropriated, and then turn around and have to defer ordinances to condemn a small strip of ground for street improvements, because there is no certificate from the auditor that the money to pay for them is in the treasury.

Alabama has learned from the quarterly report of the state convict department that the new system inaugurated in January of working the convicts in the mines under the direct supervision of the state, instead of leasing them out, has increased the earnings of the state one hundred per cent. It is probable the systems will be adopted in many southern states where it is not used at present.

The city has the dust swept from the brick street occasionally during the "sunny" hours. It is left on the side of the street, where the wind blows it back from whence it came, as well as from whence it didn't come, and at daylight it is usually scattered all over both street and sidewalk. It's a dust system we have in Paducah!

The lies that are daily published by the anti-machine Democratic press of the state are nailed with great regularity. Some of the papers and politicians alleged to have turned against Beckham have promptly denied it. The desperate straits to which the anti's have been reduced shows how easily they will be beaten.

The "outrageous assessment" that was to be required of candidates in the primary for the Democratic nomination for governor has dwindled from $2,500 to $833. It wasn't such a bad piece of robbery after all, although it was pretty easy money.

It is charged that the post house is very filthy and unfit for hogs much less for human beings who are ill. The council may take up the matter, but it will hardly find a committee that cares to go out and make a personal investigation.

It is said that there are many postal clerks drawing larger salaries than congress contemplated, and as a result there may be a considerable reduction. This is only a rumor at present, however.

The daughter of Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest woman in the United States, must be an exceptionally happy girl. She does not want a title.

NEARING COMPLETION—The changes at Hotel Lagomarsino, which have been quite extensive, are nearing completion, and it is possible that Easter dinner will be served in the new dining hall upstairs, although it is not certain. Mr. Lagomarsino will make every effort to be ready by Sunday.

ALL WRONG.

THE MISTAKE IS MADE BY MANY PADUCAH CITIZENS.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause.

It is wrong to imagine relief is cure. Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys.

A Paducah resident tells you how this can be done.

Mrs. Martha Hamilton of 610 Tennessee street, says: "I contracted a cold which settled in my kidneys. It brought on a severe attack of inflammation of the kidneys, and ever afterwards I was subject to pain across the back, although I used every precaution to prevent it. When the attacks were at their height I was prostrated and had to remain in bed for some time. One day I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised for just such conditions as mine. It struck me that they might do me some good so I procured a box at DuBois, Kolb & Co's drug store. They helped me from the start. The dull aching across the small of the back finally disappeared, the pain in my muscles and legs and dizziness which accompanied it left and since I have been only too pleased to tell my friend and acquaintances about the results I obtained from using Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitutes.

DEED MADE OUT.

Master Commissioner Gip Husbands has made out to Mr. F. N. Fisher a deed to the Johnson Foundry furnace property, which Mr. Fisher brought for $2,800 some time ago. When he went to sell it to the Paducah Furniture company recently, he learned that the master commissioner had neglected to make out the deed, and the commissioner has now attended to it in order that the transfer can be made by Mr. Fisher to the new owners.

SCHOOL BOARD.

The school board will meet tonight in regular session but nothing of unusual importance is anticipated.

The matter of changing the date of the commencement will be brought up and it is thought that the change will be ordered. The teachers all want the schools to close June 12, the day on which the cards are given out. The commencement will be held on the following Monday unless the change is made, but in the latter case the graduating exercises will be held on Thursday the 11th.

TO ATTEND GOOD ROADS MEETING—County Road Supervisor Bert Johnson will probably attend the big good roads convention at St. Louis on the 27th and 28th of April. He received an invitation this morning and said this afternoon that he thought he would arrange to go.

TO STAND EXAMINATION—Mr. and Mrs. James Segenfelder will go to Louisville Sunday, where Mr. Segenfelder will appear before the state board of pharmacy for examination. He has one more year of schooling to go through and is now on his vacation.

BACK TO KENTUCKY

Former Officer Tom Orr and Wife Return From California.

They Did Not Find Things So Pleasant As They Had Anticipated.

Former Police Officer Tom Orr and wife returned last night from California, where they went several weeks ago to locate. Mr. Orr says that he is glad to get back to Kentucky and Paducah, and intends to stay here if the people will let him.

California is a great country, but it is being overflooded with people from everywhere, many of whom go there under a false impression. Mr. Orr says that there are doubtless scores of men and women there now unable to get work or get back east. He met one man from Princeton, Ky., who said he would come back home if he had the money, but didn't have it.

Many of the people desiring a change of location are induced to go there at a season when everything is at its best and are shown by some of the land sharks how they can buy valuable orange groves for a moderate cash payment and the balance on time, and soon pay for it. They invest all their money and a bad fruit year or two prevents their making the payments, and the sharks soon foreclose and recover the land, and leave the unsophisticated citizens without money enough to get back east. Every train that stops in many of the California cities empties out huge loads of immigrants who have come there to locate, with the result that the country is rapidly becoming overpopulated.

Mr. Orr resigned a good position here on the police force to go west, but he will doubtless have no trouble in getting on again, as he has always been a first class and popular officer.

FOR SALE—A vacant lot on the west side of South Fourth street, in good neighborhood two blocks from N. C. and St. L. depot. A bargain for $300 cash. See S. A. Hill, care The Sun.

THE PEST HOUSE

Right of Way Through It Is Desired.

Complaints Made That It Is Shamefully Filthy at Present.

An effort is being made to sell a portion of the city pest house property for a right of way, but it is destined to meet with opposition in the boards. The matter was last night referred to a committee.

According to reports the city should give more attention to the pest house. A nice looking white man who said he was discharged only the day before, after having been confined there eighteen days, called at The Sun office yesterday and said it was a shame for a city to allow the place to be in the condition it is. He said it was actually too filthy for a hog to live in, and that the beds, or rather the bunks that are called beds, would put to shame the worst thing to be found in the most squalid hovels.

A member of the council today said that an investigation will be made. That according to his recollection the city ordered clean bedding bought not long ago, and that although the pest house is not intended as a fashionable boarding house or anything of the kind, it could at least be kept clean.

NEW SCHOOLS

Supt. Ragsdale to Recommend Several.

The Total Cost Will Probably be About $2,000.

This spring new school houses will be built in the county and much improvement made in many sections where new houses are wanted but cannot be built.

Superintendent Marvin Ragsdale stated this morning that he had just finished a tour of the county and had recommended new houses at several points. The following are the places where new school houses will positively be built: Melber, Florence, Rossington and Sunny Slope. The buildings will cost about $500 each, making a total of about $2,000.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR PROPOSALS.

Paducah, Ky., April 6, 1903. Sealed proposals will be received at this building until 2 o'clock p. m. April 20, 1903, for furnishing fuel, lights, water, ice, miscellaneous supplies, washing towels, hauling ashes and sprinkling streets for this building during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1904, or such portion of the year as may be deemed advisable. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved by the treasury department. F. M. FISHER, Custodian.

"FROM MISSOURI"

BUT PURE FOOD QUICKLY "SHOWED HIM."

The popular expression, "I'm from Missouri; you've got to show me," means a lot. Among the Missourians who have been "shown" the value of Grape-Nuts food is a man from St. Louis, who says:

"It was during the summer of 1900 that I was taken really ill. For some time previous I had had premonitory signs, occasional headaches, gastric disturbances and a general feeling of debility. These increased until I became alarmed and sought medical advice.

"It seemed to me I was treated for all the ills that flesh is heir to, but without avail. Finally I was frankly told by my physician that I had better put my business matters in order, as I could live but a short time. I had actually resigned myself to die when a friend who knew what he was talking about made me change my food and try Grape-Nuts. It was a long time before I commenced, for it seemed impossible that the food would help me after so many able physicians had failed to cure me. Well, to make a long story short, I at last decided to try Grape-Nuts, and the food showed me what was the matter.

"The effect was magical. One by one the shackles of disease fell from me. My brain became clear, headaches disappeared and it seemed I could feel the improvement daily. I experienced the delicious glow of strong, rich, revivifying blood flowing through my veins. I arose in the morning with old-time vigor and life seemed worth the living.

"The first month of Grape-Nuts' use I gained 20 pounds, and I have been gaining steadily ever since." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Social Notes and About People.

EASTER HAT SALE.

An unique and taking entertainment will be given on Thursday evening in the Epworth League parlors of the Broadway Methodist church. It will be an "Easter Hat Sale," and there will be some delightful and unusual features connected with it. One of the most talented and rising young attorneys in the city will probably act as auctioneer. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Ramsey Society which is noted for its successful affairs. Light refreshments will be served.

CHARITY CLUB.

The Charity club will meet tomorrow morning at the Palmer house to transact any standing business and arrange for their final tea. The club practically disbanded April 1 until next November, but postponed the business meeting from last Wednesday until this on account of some absent officers.

D. A. R. MEETING.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are meeting this afternoon with Mrs. George O. Hart on Jefferson street.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Frank Barnard entertained a number of children last evening at "The Inn." It was a "lemon squeeze" and was quite an enjoyable occasion.

CHORAL CLUB.

The Choral club met last evening at the First Christian church to practice for the cantata to be given soon after Easter.

DELPHIC CLUB.

The Delphic club met with Mrs. J. C. Flournoy this morning. Michael Angelo was the subject for discussion.

Miss Bertha Mertz will entertain the Industrial club at her home on Adams street on Wednesday afternoon.

WHIST CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bloom will entertain the Whist club this evening at their home on Jefferson street.

Dr. H. Hessig has returned from New York, where he had been called by the illness of a relative.

Alderman Joe Riglesberger is in Chicago on business.

William Scruggs, the harnessmaker, of 1017 South Fourth, has been presented with a girl baby.

Mr. Lloyd Bloomfield has returned from Nashville, where he had gone on business.

Mr. John Schofner of Nashville, a well known Tennessee tie man, is in the city today on business.

W. H. Holcombe of Chicago, president of the Holcombe-Lobb Tie Co., is in the city today.

Mrs. G. W. Briggs and son Waverly have gone to Louisville. They will be followed by Wood Briggs, the eldest son, in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Vineyard have returned from Jackson, Tenn.

Mrs. James Sherrell has gone to Glasgow, Ky., for a month's visit.

Dr. O. A. Elliott leaves today for Beaumont, Tex., on a visit to his son, Mr. James Elliott.

Mr. W. A. Davis has returned from a trip south, having bought about one million and several hundred thousand feet of lumber.

Miss Lucie Turner of Wickliffe is expected Saturday to visit Mrs. Sam Hubbard.

Miss Sadie Slack of Owensboro will arrive Saturday to be the guest of the Misses Paxton of West Jefferson street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Garretson have returned from a visit to Harrisburg, Ill., accompanied by their niece, Miss Maud Kavanaugh, who is their guest.

WITH THE SICK.

Mr. Amidid Dumaine of North Tenth street is ill.

Mr. Allan Bowden of the master mechanic's office is ill and Mr. Ed Nance is acting in his place.

Mr. Geo. Streator of South Third street has been released from quarantine and discharged as cured of smallpox.

The condition of Miss Flora May Clark is about the same as yesterday. The most modern treatment is being applied and the young lady's many friends will be pleased to know that she will doubtless not be disfigured in the least by the disease, especially as her face is not badly affected. The room is kept in a red light all the time.

Gip Husbands, M. O., deeds to W. F. Paxton for $725 property on Bronson avenue.

STILL RETICENT.

MAN AT THE CITY HOSPITAL IS RAPIDLY IMPROVING.

Frank Brown, the man who was brought here several weeks ago from Rives, Tenn., is doing well at the city hospital and is now able to walk about the building. He still refuses to tell how he got hurt and will say nothing more than he does not remember anything about the occurrence. He claims his home is at Covington, Ky., but has been traveling around for some time. The local authorities have not learned anything further about the man except that he was injured in some way at Rives or in the near vicinity.

A NEW ENTERPRISE

FOR PADUCAH.

The Great Pacific Tea and Coffee Co. decides to open a branch in Paducah.

Attracted by the great industrial resources of Paducah and vicinity, the Great Pacific Tea and Coffee Co.—the largest coffee plantation growers in the world—will establish another of its many branch stores at 333 Broadway, under the management of Mr. Sol Lesser, recently from Omaha, Neb. The Great Pacific operates stores in all the principal cities in the United States and have concluded to add Paducah to their list. 300,000 acres of the finest tea and coffee lands are owned by this immense corporation in Guatemala, Brazil and Central America.

They also control large interests in the tea lands of China and Japan.

The people of Paducah will receive through the Great Pacific Tea and Coffee Co., located here, the very finest grades of tea and coffee at 20 per cent less than they have been paying for inferior goods.

Nothing but first class goods are ever handled by the Great Pacific Tea and Coffee Co. Their motto—"Not How Cheap, But How Good."

This store will be opened on or about April 10. The exact date of opening will be published later.

Good clothes Make you Feel Comfortable

Is it a comfortable thing to know your clothes are all right? To know they hang right, are cut right, made right and of the latest style?

We sneer when a man says, "The clothes make the man." May be they don't, but it gives him an air of prosperity to be well dressed.

Let me make your clothes and you will always be well dressed—and prosperous.

If you will call I will convince you that I can save you money on your clothes—one of the by paths to prosperity.

Good clothes are the cheapest, always.

BE A BOOSTER FOR THE PADUCAH CARNIVAL.

The coming free carnival at Paducah May 11-16 will boom business and advertise everybody. It chases dull times away, makes the people feel better by reason of forcing them to amusement, gives the little folks the treat of their lives, shows the old folks the way of innocent amusement, brings great crowds from afar, enables you to meet your friends and relatives from other cities, makes the city the center of attraction for thousands of excursionists, enlivens the sluggish, makes the older ones feel young again, makes the weak strong and the wretched happy.

It also makes everyone feel good and puts into circulation many a dollar which otherwise would have been hoarded away in an old teapot or in the foot of an old sock. As a business producer, general enlivener of everything and a boomer of towns in general there is nothing like the great carnival, and all over the country where it has visited the masses say so and are booking it to come back again.

Be a booster and help the merchants in their efforts to make this carnival a big success.

Theatrical Notes.

The Peruchi-Beldini company opened a two weeks engagement at the Kentucky last night in "The Land of the Sky" to a large audience that appeared to enjoy the performance. The specialties between acts were also enjoyed and the company was accorded liberal applause. During the last act in an affecting scene one young lady in the audience wept so she had to be carried out, which was quite a compliment to the company. The performances will be given every evening with matinees for two weeks, with the exception of one night next week when Miss Henrietta Crosman will be here.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 27.4 on the gauge, a fall of 1.0 in last 24 hours. Wind north, a light breeze. Weather cloudy and warmer. Temperature 58. Pell, Observer.

The Victor will leave today for Shiloh.

The Wilford is still laying up for repairs.

The Avalon is due from Chattanooga Saturday.

The Joe Fowler is today's packet for Evansville.

The Dick Fowler left on time this morning for Cairo.

The Grace Smith has gone into Tennessee river for ties.

The Lyda is due out of Tennessee river about Saturday.

The Clyde will arrive tomorrow from Tennessee river.

The Michael left yesterday for Mississippi river for timber.

The Rees Lee is due en route to Memphis today or tomorrow.

Another bridge over the Ohio at East Liverpool is now talked of.

The Savannah is due to St. Louis from Tennessee river Wednesday or Thursday.

The Pavonia will leave tomorrow for Cairo with four barges of ties for the steamer Hosmer.

The Diamond Joe line boats have been offered more traffic than they can handle on the upper Mississippi.

Captain Billy Smith yesterday brought up the steamer Thomas Nevins from Cairo and is now her regular pilot.

The Butterff did not make her trip to Nashville this week but will arrive here Wednesday and leave at noon for Clarksville.

The name of the Hill City has been changed to Corwin H. Spencer. There is not much in a name, for the boat has had three, she having started with the City of Monroe.

The railroad steel sunk in the river near Havesville by the steamer J. B. Finley a few weeks ago is being taken from the wrecked barges. Probably all of it will be saved.

The Bowell is at Brookport today pumping out her sunken barges. She will have to raise the fleet before she can make the trip. It is thought that she will be able to go out to Green river by Saturday.

Captain Dan Finney yesterday pulled his boat the Penguin, into his dock barge and raised her out of the water for general repairs. Captain Finney has two such barges and uses them in towing. They hold 10,000 ties each and when he is not using them for towing purposes he uses them in repairing boats. They are made with one end on hinges which can be unfastened and the barge sunk. The boat is then towed into the barge and the gate closed again and the water pumped out. He will give the Penguin a general overhauling.

MAYFIELD PRESBYTERY.

M'CRACKEN COUNTY MINISTER TO DELIVER A SERMON.

This year's session of the Mayfield Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian church is to be held at Good Springs, Tenn., on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Paine's Celery Compound
The World's Ideal Health Builder, Does the Blessed Work.

Thousands of prominent, Christian ministers, through the use of Paine's Celery Compound, are happily pursuing their pastoral duties and ministering with success to their congregations. Heart troubles, sleeplessness, nervousness, sluggish and impure blood, weak digestion and variable appetite, resulting from overwork, overstudy, worry and anxiety, are the troubles that drag clergymen down to deeper sufferings and perils. Today Paine's Celery Compound is the home medicine of all wise and prudent clergymen. A vast number of them owe their lives and present good health to Dr. Phelps' world-renowned prescription that "makes sick people well."

The Rev. Dr. S. G. A. Fields, Crescent, Oklahoma, says:

"I thank you most sincerely for the marvelous benefits I derived from the use of your Paine's Celery Compound. I can boast of heart trouble banished, my nervousness is gone, my sleep is refreshing, appetite and digestion in splendid condition, and my strength is increasing daily. All this blessed work has been accomplished by your Paine's Celery Compound."

FREE TRIPS TO ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.
ALL EXPENSES OF THE 120 MOST POPULAR SCHOOL TEACHERS IN THE STATE PAID.

School children and public generally invited to vote to determine the most popular teacher in every county. Votes ten cents each, ten cast at one time. All money over and above trip expenses of teachers to go into erection of the Kentucky Building at the Exposition. Every voter thus given the satisfaction of knowing a worthy cause and important object have been aided at the same time a favorite teacher has received recognition. Contest conducted under auspices of Educational Exhibit Committee of Kentucky Educational Association, the organization formed to raise $50,000 for the Kentucky Building and full display of the State's products and resources at the Fair, the Legislature having failed to make an appropriation. Every educator in the State, whether teacher in public or private schools, or member of faculty of academy, college or university, medical, dental or theological institution, Protestant or Catholic, or member of national school, is eligible to election. Members of the Educational Association are asked to secure as many votes as possible.

Names of all school children voting to be enrolled in the Kentucky Building at the Exposition. Kentucky will have an educational exhibit occupying 2,500 square feet of space in the Palace of Education. The Exposition is to be the greatest international event in the world's history. The teachers chosen will be lucky indeed in being rendered this trip to the Fair. Every county elects its own most popular educator. The county outside of Jefferson casting the largest number of votes will be allowed to send two teachers—the most popular and the second most popular.

THE VOTES WILL BE TEN CENTS EACH, TEN CONSTITUTING A BALLOT.

At ten cents each every school child in the State will be able to cast at least one vote for his or her favorite teacher. But the voting will not be confined to school children.

PARENTS OF PUPILS OR ANY OF THEIR FRIENDS MAY VOTE. The purpose of the Association being to elect the most popular teacher in each county, as so considered by the public generally, as well as by the school children. Ballots contain ten spaces, so clubs of ten pupils may be arranged and each giving ten cents be credited with his or her vote. If one person desires to cast ten votes, it may be done by writing his or her name on one of the spaces and remitting one dollar. It is not required that the name of the person voting be given at all. All of the spaces for voters' names may be left blank. The Association wants, however, to enroll in the Kentucky Building at St. Louis next year the name of every child who cast one or more votes in the contest. Pupils are asked the day to sign their names plainly to the ballots.

ALL EXPENSES OF THE TEACHERS WILL BE PAID BY THE ASSOCIATION. This will include railroad transportation from Louisville to St. Louis and return, board at one of the best hotels in the city for six days and admission to the exposition grounds for six days.

THREE PARTIES WILLER MADE UP FROM THE MOST POPULAR TEACHERS to make the trip more profitable and more enjoyable. Each of these parties will consist of forty (40) teachers. This would make a total of 120 teachers, but as there are only 110 counties in Kentucky, the Association has decided to have two teachers from the most popular and the second most popular county from that county—Jefferson excepted—which casts the greatest number of votes in the contest.

ALL TEACHERS IN THE STATE STAND ON AN EQUAL FOOTING in this contest. The teacher with only twenty pupils may receive more votes than the teacher with five or six times as many enrolled in his or her school, because the voting is not confined to children. The public will be an important factor.

Votes may be cast for any person who taught school during 1902 or is teaching now. This gives the teacher of a five months' school, which closed in November or December, the opportunity to be voted for during the vacation period.

ANY NUMBER OF BALLOTS MAY BE CAST AT ONE TIME. There is no limit. The more dollars sent in for any one teacher the more votes he or she will be credited with.

ONE DOLLAR CASTS TEN VOTES; TWO DOLLARS CASTS TWENTY VOTES; THREE DOLLARS CASTS THIRTY VOTES; FOUR DOLLARS CASTS FORTY VOTES; FIVE DOLLARS CASTS FIFTY VOTES; TEN DOLLARS CASTS A HUNDRED VOTES; ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS CASTS ONE THOUSAND VOTES.

All of the money received in this contest, over and above that used in defraying expenses of the 120 most popular teachers of the State on their trip to the World's Fair, will go for the erection of a Kentucky Building at the Exposition, on the grounds for six days.

THE STANDING OF THE CONTESTANTS WILL BE PRINTED FREQUENTLY in each county to show his or her friends how the race is being run. Begin voting now for your favorite school teacher. The votes will be counted under the supervision of the Educational Exhibit Committee of the Association. The personnel of this committee is as follows: Prof. H. G. Brownell, Louisville, Chairman; Prof. H. V. McChesney, Frankfort; Prof. R. F. Halleck, Louisville; Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, Louisville; Prof. F. Paul Anderson, Lexington; Dr. Chase Palmer, Louisville. President William Elwood Jackson; Dr. W. G. Frost, Berea; Dr. B. B. Hanson, Louisville; Dr. E. V. Mullins, Louisville; Dr. Arthur Yager, Georgetown; Superintendent M. A. Cassidy, Lexington; Superintendent S. L. Froge, Frankfort; Prof. C. J. Crabbe, Ashland; Prof. McHenry Rhoads, Owensboro; Prof. T. S. Allen, Bellevue; Prof. C. C. Cherry, Bowling Green; Prof. Evans Spencer, Louisville; Miss Fattie S. Hill, Louisville; Mrs. Emily R. Bracken, Louisville, and Mrs. M. B. Tucker, Louisville. Members of the Educational Committee are not eligible to election in this contest.

REMEMBER EVERY COUNTY ELECTS ITS OWN FAVORITE TEACHER. Competition between counties only applies to the race for the 120th trip, the county outside of Jefferson, casting the largest total number of votes being granted the distinction of sending two teachers.

The result will be announced in every paper in the State, and, in addition to this, a congratulatory message will go to the teacher elected in each county. Later details of the trip will be arranged, each teacher chosen being given the privilege of selecting the month—June, July or August, 1904—in which he or she wants to make the trip.

Low Colonist Rates to the Northwest and California

From February 15th until April 30th, the Burlington makes greatly reduced one-way rates for settlers going to California, Montana, Big Horn Basin, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Puget Sound Country and British Columbia. Generally speaking the reduction is from 25 to 40 percent.

The Way To Go

Take the Burlington trains at St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Omaha, Denver or Chicago. With its close connections, the Great Northern and Northern Pacific roads, and with its through train service the Burlington offers more to the settler than any other line or combination of lines into the Northwest.

The "Burlington-Northern Pacific Express" is the great daily train with through chair cars, coaches and through tourist sleepers. This is the only through train into the Northwest jointly with the Northern Pacific Road.

To California

Join the Burlington's personally conducted California excursions in through tourist sleepers which are run on frequent dates each week via Denver, Scenic Colorado and Salt Lake City.

Main Traveled Road

One makes no mistake in calling for tickets over the Burlington with its 5000 miles of main traveled trunk lines leading practically to all the great cities and diverging points of the West.

Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth

Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English From Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir
By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]

"I know it must be a task to be good when everybody flatters even one's shortcomings," said Brandon and then continued in a way that, I am free to confess, was something priggish: "It is almost impossible for us to see our own faults even when others are kind enough to point them out, for they are right ugly things and unpleasant to look upon. But, lacking those outside monitors, one must all the more cultivate the habit of constant inlooking and self examination. If we are only brave enough to confront our faults and look them in the face, ugly as they are, we shall be sure to overcome the worst of them. A striving toward good will achieve at least a part of it."

"Oh!" returned the princess. "But what is good and what is wrong? So often we cannot tell them apart until we look back at what we have done, and then it is all too late. I truly wish to be good more than I desire anything else in the world. I am so ignorant and helpless and have such strong inclinations to do wrong that sometimes I seem to be almost all wrong. The priests say so much, but tell us so little.
They talk about St. Peter and St. Paul and a host of other saints and holy fathers and what not, but fail to tell us what we need every moment of our lives; that is, how to know the right when we see it, and how to do it; and how to know the wrong and how to avoid it. They ask us to believe so much and insist that faith is the sum of virtue and the lack of it the sum of sin, that to faith all things are added, but we might believe every syllable of their whole disturbing creed and then spoil it all through blind ignorance of what is right and what is wrong."

"As to knowing right and wrong," replied Brandon, "I think I can give you a rule which, although it may not cover the whole ground, is excellent for everyday use. It is this, Whatever makes others unhappy is wrong, whatever makes the world happier is good.
As to how we are always to do this I cannot tell you. One has to learn that by trying. We can but try, and if we fail altogether there is still virtue in every futile effort toward the right."

Mary bent her head as she walked along in thought.
"What you have said is the only approach to a rule for knowing and doing the right I have ever heard. Now what do you think of me as a flatterer?
But it will do no good. The bad is in me too strong. It always does itself before I can apply any rule or even realize what is coming." And again she shook her head, with a bewitching little look of trouble.

"Pardon me, your highness, but there is no bad in you. It has been put on you by others and is all on the outside.
There is none of it in your heart at all.
That evil which you think comes out of you simply falls from you. Your heart is all right or I have greatly mis-judged you." He was treating her almost as if she were a child.

"I fear, Master Brandon, you are the most adroit flatterer of all," said Mary, shaking her head and looking up at him with a side glance. "People have deluged me with all kinds of flattery—
I have different sorts boxed and labeled—but no one has ever gone to the extravagant length of calling me good.
Perhaps they think I do not care for that, but I like it best. I don't like the others at all. If I am beautiful or not, it is as God made me, and I have nothing to do with it and desire no credit, but if I could only be good it might be my own doing perhaps, and I ought to have praise. I wonder if there is really and truly any good in me and if you have read me aright." Then, looking up at him with a touch of consternation, "Or are you laughing at me?"

Brandon wisely let the last suggestion pass unnoticed.
"I am sure that I am right. You have glorious capacities for good, but, alas, corresponding possibilities for evil. It will eventually all depend upon the man you marry. He can make out of you a perfect woman or the reverse."

Again there was the surprised expression in Mary's face, but Brandon's serious look disarmed her.
"I fear you are right, as to the reverse at any rate, and the worst of it is I shall never be able to choose a man to help me, but shall sooner or later be compelled to marry the creature who will pay the greatest price."

"God forbid!" said Brandon reverently.

They were growing rather serious, so Mary turned the conversation again into the laughing mood and said, with a half sigh: "Oh, I hope you are right about the possibilities for good, but you do not know. Wait until you have seen more of me."

"I certainly hope I shall not have long to wait."

The surprised eyes again glanced forth on his part to win her, but Mary had never heard of prudence, and man's caution avails but little when set against woman's daring. In case they both should love they were sure to try for each other and in trying were equally sure to find ruin and desolation.

A few evenings after this I met the princess in the queen's drawing room.
She beckoned me to her and, resting her elbows on the top of a cabinet, her chin in her hands, said: "I met your quickly up to the serious face, but the answer came: "That you shall not. But here is the queen, and I suppose we must have the benediction." Brandon understood her hint, that the preaching was over, and, taking it for his dismissal, playfully lifted his hands in imitation of the old bishop of Canterbury and murmured the first line of the Latin benediction. Then they both laughed and courted, and Brandon walked away.

CHAPTER IV. A LESSON IN DANCING.

LAUGHED heartily when Jane told me of the tilt between Brandon and Princess Mary, the latter of whom was in the habit of saying unkind things and being thanked for them.

Brandon was the wrong man to say them to, as Mary learned. He was not hot tempered—in fact, just the reverse
—but he was the last man to brook an affront and the quickest to resent in a cool headed, dangerous way an intentional offense.

He respected himself and made others do the same, or seem to do so at least. He had no vanity, which is but an inordinate desire for those qualities that bring self respect and often the result of conscious merit, but he knew himself and knew that he was entitled to his own good opinion. He was every inch a man, strong, intelligent and brave to temerity, with a reckless disregard of consequences, which might have been dangerous had it not been tempered by a dash of prudence and caution that gave him ballast.

I was not surprised when I heard of the encounter, for I knew enough of him to be sure that Mary's high handed-ness would meet its counterpart in his cool friend Brandon. It was, however, an unfortunate victory, and what all Mary's beauty and brightness would have failed to do her honest, open acknowledgment of wrong, following so quickly upon the heels of her fault, accomplished easily. It drew him within the circle of her fatal attractions, and when Jane told me of it I knew his fate was sealed and that sooner or later his untouched heart and cool head would fall victim to the shafts that so surely winged all others.

It might and probably would be "later," since, as Brandon had said, he was not one of those who wear the

"I trust the king will see fit to favor him, and I hope that you will speak a word in his behalf should the opportunity occur."

"What, in the name of heaven, have we to give him?" cried Mary impatiently, for she kept an eye on things political, even if she were only a girl.

"The king has given away everything that can be given already, and now that the war is over and men are coming home there are hundreds waiting for more. My father's great treasure is squandered, to say nothing of the money collected from Empson, Dudley and the other commissioners. There is nothing to give unless it be the titles and estate of the late Duke of Suffolk.

Perhaps the king will give these to your paragon if you will paint him in as fair a light as you have drawn him for me." Then, throwing back her head, with a laugh, "Ask him."

"It would be none too much for his deserts," I replied, falling in with her humor.

"We will so arrange it, then," went on Mary banteringly. "Captain Brandon no longer, but Charles Brandon, duke of Suffolk. How sounds it, Master Caskoden?"

"Sweet in my ears," I replied.

"I really believe you would have the king's crown for him, you absurd man, if you could get it. We must have so interesting a person at court. I shall at least see that he is presented to the queen at once. I wonder if he dances.
I suppose not. He has probably been too busy cutting and thrusting." And she laughed again at her own pleas-antry.

When the mirth began to gather in her face and the dimples came respos-sive to her smiles, when she threw back her perfectly poised head, stretching her soft, white throat, so full and round and beautiful, half closing her big brown eyes till they shone again from beneath the shade of those long, black, sweeping lashes; when her red lips parted, showing her teeth of pearl, and she gave the little clap of her hands, a sort of climax to the soft, low, rippling laugh, she made a picture of such exquisite loveliness that it is no wonder men were fools about her and caught love as one catches a contagion.

I had it once, as you already know, and had recovered. All that prevented a daily relapse was my fair, sweet antidote, Jane, whose image rested in my heart, a lasting safeguard.

"I wonder if your prodigy plays cards—that is, such as we ladies play?"
asked Mary. "You say he has lived much in France, where the game was invented, but I have no doubt he would scorn to waste his time at so frivolous a pursuit when he might be slaughtering armies single handed and alone."

"I do not know as to his dancing and card playing, but I dare venture a wager he does both," I replied, not liking her tone of sarcasm. She had yet to learn who Brandon was.

"I will hazard ten crowns," said
Mary quickly, for she loved a wager and was a born gambler.

"Taken," said I.

"We will try him on both tomorrow night in my drawing room," she continued. "You bring him up, but tell no one. I will have Jane there with her lute, which will not frighten you away I know, and we will try his step.
I will have cards, too, and we shall see what he can do at triumph. Just we four, no one else at all. You and Jane, the new Duke of Suffolk and I. Oh, I can hardly wait!" And she fairly danced with joyous anticipation.

She whose every desire from childhood up had been gratified, whose every whim seemed to her a narmount necessity, would stop at nothing when the dearest wish a woman's heart conceives was to be gained or lost.

Brandon's element of prudence might veil him, and might forestall any efficient, Captain Brandon, a day or two ago. Did he tell you?"

"No," I answered. "Jane told me,
but he has not mentioned it."

It was true Brandon had not said a word of the matter, and I had not spoken of it either. I wanted to see how long he would remain silent concerning an adventure that would have set most men of the court boasting at a great rate. To have a tilt with the ever victorious Mary and to come off victor was enough, I think, to loosen any tongue less given to bragging than Brandon's.

"So," continued Mary, evidently somewhat piqued, "he did not think his presentation to me a thing worth mentioning? We had a little passage at arms, and, to tell you the truth, I came off second best and had to acknowledge it too. Now, what do you think of this new friend of yours? And he did not boast about having the better of me.
After all, there is more virtue in his silence than I at first thought." And she threw back her head and clapped her hands and laughed with the most contagious little ripple you ever heard. She seemed not to grieve over her defeat, but dimpled as though it were a huge joke, the thought of which rather pleased her than otherwise. Victory had grown stale for her, although so young.

"What do I think of my new friend?"
I repeated after her, and that gave me a theme upon which I could enlarge eloquently. I told her of his learning, notwithstanding the fact that he had been in the continental wars ever since he was a boy. I repeated to her stories of his daring and bravery that had been told to me by his uncle, the master of the horse, and others, and then I added what I knew Lady Jane had already said. I had expected to be brief, but to my surprise found a close and interested listener, even to the twice told parts, and drew my story out a little, to the liking of us both.

"Your friend has an earnest advocate in you, Sir Edwin," said the princess.
"That he has," I replied. "There is nothing too good to say of him."

I knew that Mary, with her better, clearer brain, held the king almost in the palm of her hand, so I thought to

"Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

BASEBALL NEWS

Work on the Park Timbers Being Pushed.

Manager Jackson Expects to Have His Team by the End of the Week.

Contractor Dossett, who secured the contract for building the baseball bleachers and grand stand for the Paducah baseball association, is working a large force of men sawing the lumber with which he will build the grand stand. The timber after being sawed into the proper lengths, will be taken to the grounds and put up. Mr. Gus Thompson, of the street car company, is working the ground and will have everything in readiness for the big Pittsburg game by April 30. The grand stand and bleachers also will be finished by that time and this will be the formal opening of the ball park.

Manager Jackson has about twenty men on the string and will probably sign his regular team before the week is out. He stated this morning that he intended to secure most of his men from Finley, Ohio, St. Louis and Louisville, but that he would take any player who comes up to the mark no matter where he comes from.

The date for the schedule committee meeting has been fixed for the 15th at Hopkinsville.

The managers of the "Sterling" baseball team desires that a full lineup of their team be published and the following is the lineup furnished by them: Dick B. Abie and Frank Dargal, pitchers; Robert Hayes and Ed Bralio, catchers; Bud Vogt, first base; M. Connery, second base; Guy Randall, third base; L. Hugg, short stop; Tom McGarrigal, left field; G. Johnson, center field; Buck Russell, right field and Holland Young, extra.

WILL WAIT

THE HOSPITAL PROJECT GOES OVER UNTIL NOVEMBER.

The new charity hospital bond issue ordinance was not brought up at the council meeting last night as the doctors have now decided that they will wait until November.

"We thought at first that we would fight it out but have decided that we had better wait until the regular election when we know that there will be no hitch. There is so much difference in opinion among the best lawyers that we would not feel safe. We will have a different ordinance prepared and present it to the boards just before the election in November. Then there can be no hitch."

NOT A REFUSAL

SOLICITING COMMITTEE FOR CARNIVAL MUCH PLEASED.

Messrs. L. A. Lagomarsino and G. R. Davis, of the Elks executive committee, yesterday made a canvass of the portion of the city from Third street to the Petter boatstore, and not a single merchant refused. On the other hand they all made liberal donations.

It is intended to hold a meeting of the executive committee tomorrow night. All the members of the soliciting committee report gratifying results.

SCRAP IN SIGHT

Prosecuting Attorney Gilbert Makes an Appointment.

News-Democrat May Have to Gracefully Retire as Public Printer.

Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Gilbert stated this morning that he had appointed the Register public printer of Paducah to succeed the News-Democrat, which has had the job for the past year. His appointment, however, has not been reported to either of the boards, but will probably be at some early meeting.

The deposed public printer was not ready to make any statement today when a reporter called and asked "how about it." The official head of the concern said that nothing was known at that office about such an appointment, and nothing could be said in regard to it until something was known about it. It was said, however, that the official printing was still being done at that office.

It is probable that a fight will ensue over the printing. It is claimed that Attorney Gilbert made the appointment as city attorney, when the court of appeals virtually decided that he was prosecuting attorney and was entitled to the compensation paid prosecuting attorneys, which is commissions, while a city attorney, under the second class charter, is paid a salary. Paducah, some contend, has no city attorney in the meaning of the second class charter, but has a prosecuting attorney and a city attorney, who were both elected under the old charter and receive the pay fixed for those offices, and can discharge the duties and exercise only the prerogatives and authority that became theirs under the old charter. It is probable that the fight will be made along this line.

City Clerk Patterson, however, it is understood, will recognize the Register as public printer, and unless ordered otherwise by higher officials with authority will turn over to it any documents that go to the public printer.

NOTICE.

Will Hays vs. Str. City of Memphis, in Admiralty.

Whereas, A libel was filed in the district court of the United States at Paducah, Ky., on the 3rd day of January, 1903, by Will Hays against the steamer City of Memphis, her engines, tackle, apparel, etc., alleging in substance that said steamer was indebted to him in the sum of $13.10 for services as seaman, and that said steamer was justly indebted to him in said sum, that same has never been paid, and prays process against said steamer, and that it be condemned and sold to pay said claim, with costs and expenses.

Now, therefore, in pursuance to the monition under seal of said court to me directed, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said steamer, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear in the district court of the United States for the Western district of Kentucky, at Paducah, on or before the 20th day of April, 1903, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to interpose their claims and to make their allegations in that behalf.

SENT CHECK

HON. JOHN K. HENDRICK FORWARDS HIS PRO RATA TO FRANKFORT.

Hon. John K. Hendrick is in the city today resting up, and forwarded by the noon mail to Frankfort his certified check for his assessment for the state primary, $833 and some cents. Up to yesterday only one candidate had put up his money, Gov. Beckham.

Mr. Hendrick says he feels greatly encouraged, and after resting up here today will go to Elkton tonight to speak tomorrow.

A GOOD INVESTMENT—Three room house at 1298 South Eighth street, nearly new; lot 40x163 feet with 10 foot alley, hydrant in yard. Rents for $8 per month. A bargain at $800.
